

Opening Session Keynote Speaker

“How TREA and a rural education helped set me up for success in higher education.”

Caitlin Seigrist graduated from Tidehaven High School at the top of her class in 2018 and is a past TREA scholarship recipient. She is now pursuing a doctorate in pharmacy from Southwestern Oklahoma State University College of Pharmacy. Caitlin is highly involved with the professional pharmacy organization, Kappa Epsilon, as well as the Baptist Collegiate Ministries leadership team on campus.
